January 2022

Commander's Comments: The holidays are behind us and the new year brings a sense of renewal. Many choose to set health or financial goals which are great starts to any new year. There is one goal that I'd like to suggest, if you're a legion member, it's time to make a commitment to get involved, and donate some of your time and talents. The success of any organization depends on membership, volunteering, and commitment.

With covid infection numbers reaching 10,000 a day in Cuyahoga County, I'd ask that members consider getting immunized and receiving the booster. Now is the time to protect your health and those around you. The Post has a sign in book, hand sanitizer, and masks for your use. As things progress, we will follow CDC and local guidelines. This pandemic changes daily and we must all remain compliant and flexible. If you have cold symptoms (cough, runny nose, sore throat, low grade fever, body aches, or no taste), please stay home and treat these symptoms, and contact your medical providers. The safety of our members and guests' rests in each members hands.

2nd Vice Commander's Comments: Holiday greetings everyone. Nothing planned for January. Be safe and see you at the Legion. If you have any comments or questions, please contact me at: 216-470-2579 (after 7pm) or email: secondvice_alpost572@yahoo.com - Thank you, John Rader

Adjutant: I hope everyone had a joyous Christmas and a great time welcoming in the new year. Time to get your membership updated. According to the American Legion we still have about 64 members from 2021 who have yet to renew. Your membership is considered to be delinquent. Please renew by February 1st or your membership will be suspended by the American Legion and you will no longer have privileges of the Post. You can create an account on mylegion.org and pay on line or mail it to the Post or drop off in the Canteen.

When you come to the Canteen or any event at the Post, we expect everyone to be on their best behavior. Treat each other with respect including our bar staff, they have a tough job especially when we are busy and service sometimes feels like it takes an eternity. Remember they are expected to be polite to everyone and to enforce the rules as required by the Executive Committee. Rules of conduct are posted in the Canteen and have been there even when the bar was downstairs. Remember that unwanted touching and crude remarks even if innocently done are not appreciated by many of our members. If you are in a foul mood or not feeling well and itching for a confrontation, go somewhere else. Any misconduct in the building or on Post property may result in suspension of Post privileges.

Thanks go out to Tom Raab for taking over as Post Webmaster.

Welcome to our new Post Legionnaires: Rick Burton (new), Thomas White and Edward Schneiderheinze (transfers)

Chaplain's Corner: Happy New Year to everyone! I hope everyone had a Wonderful and Blessed Christmas. If you have not gotten your vaccination against COVID yet please, please do so as soon as possible. This thing is no going to go away anytime soon, or maybe never, so I beg each and every one to get vaccinated, and I pray for all of our membership that no one gets it.

A parting quote from Dale Evans Rogers "Every time we love, every time we give, it's Christmas." Jim
