Commander's Comments: Happy New Years! I hope this new year brings great things to you and yours. We have a great deal to be thankful for, when we look back at last year's accomplishments. This new year promises to be a much busier one. The canteen accent wall has begun. There will be a few things added in the coming weeks. Change must take place, and it's painful to some, but we hope that the changes will attract and inspire others. Be patient and lend a hand if you can. - I have had a conversation with a pool player (Pat Martin), concerning the pool table. The rails were broken, and the felt was worn. I called the vendor and he agreed to do the repairs at no charge. Please do not sit, lean, place liquid, or food on the table. The table is an asset to the post. - Hall Kitchen has located a stove and a convection oven from A1 Restaurant Supply on Euclid Ave, Cleveland. We are in need of a plumber. If you know of anyone, please let me know or Carla from the canteen. - Please feel free to contact me if you have any questions. - Activities are forming and rolling out. Please check the "What's Going On" board on the walk-in cooler wall. Facebook also has updates. Come out, participate, or volunteer. - Word of the month: VOLUNTEER - For God & Country - Erich Pflaidermahn, Commander

As we begin this new year, please continue to pray for the return of our close to 82,000 MIAs, and please hound our people in congress to keep funding the POW/MIA accounting mission until they are all accounted for.

I hope to see a good turnout at our meeting, and I will close with a quote from Leonard Nimoy, "The more we share, the more we have." Jim
